O Holy Morn!

O ho - ly night! For three days Je - sus slum - - bered in O ho - ly morn! The Christ has tru - ly a - ris - - en. It O ri - sen Christ, my soul's worth I can - not fa - - thom, that stone cold tomb, an - oint - ed, laid and mourned. Af - ter be is the day of sin and death's de - feat. Long lay the you would die a - mid tor - ture and dis - grace. How can I re

- tray - al, a - ban - don - ment and suf - - fering, he there took rest world in sin and er - ror pin - - ing, till he died
- spond to a love that is so ho - - ly, sa - cri - fi - till all pro phe sy was ful - filled. Then with stone rolled and the soul felt its worth. A thrill of

- cing, all - con - sum - ing and pure? The King of aw - ay and an - gels left an - nounc - ing with dawn he rose and hope as we know he now is ris - en, for to - day breaks a kings val - ues me a low - ly sin - ner, so much he would die and con - quered death in full. Christ is the Lord!

new and glor - ious morn. Fall on your knees!
rise for me a - lone. Be - - - hold our King!

Lyrics under the staves:

m. 31 (Dm ... Am)
O praise his name for ev - - er! His O hear the an - gel voic - - es! "Al - le Be - fore him low - ly bend! Al - le

m. 36 (C G C F C G) pow - - er and glo - - ry___ ev - - er
- lu - - ia! Al - le - lu - - ia! O Christ is
- lu - - ia! Al - le - lu - - ia! O praise his

m. 41 (C ... [1.]G ... C)
- more pro - claim. His power and glo - now___ raised! Al - le - lu - - - ia! Al - le - lu - great mer - cy! O praise his mer -

m. 46 (F C G C)
- ry ev - - er - more pro - claim!
- ia! O ___ morn di - vine!"
- cy! Praise his great mer - cy!

m. 51 ([2.]G ... C F C) power and glo - - ry O ___ ev - lu - - ia! Al - le - lu - - ia! O ___ morn! praise his mer - - cy! O ___ praise

m. 56 (G C)
- - er more pro - claim!
O morn di - vine!
his great mer - cy!